DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1, 11, 15, 20, 24, and 28, drawn to a device of a surface-emission laser diode, classified in class 372, subclass 50.124.
 - II. Claim 14, drawn to a method of manufacturing a surface-emission laser diode, classified in class 438, subclass 1+.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions of Group I and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)).

In the instant case, Group I, a surface-emission laser diode, can be made by using masking and laminating method, not just by patterning and dry etching method as cited in Group II.
3. Additionally, a device includes the following species:
 - (a) This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:
 - S1. Species 1, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 3.

- S2. Species 2, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 5.
- S3. Species 3, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 6-7.
- S4. Species 4, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 8.
- S5. Species 5, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 9.
- S6. Species 6, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 15-16.
- S7. Species 7, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 17-19.
- S8. Species 8, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 20.
- S9. Species 9, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 21.
- S10. Species 10, directed to a surface-emission laser diode shown in figure 22.

The Species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, No claim is generic.

Applicant must elect: firstly, one from Device/Method; and secondly, in case of device, one from Species S1-S10 under the elected Species.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
